September 25-27, 2009

at Christ Church Episcopal, 2000 Maryland Parkway (at St. Louis)

A Celebration of Peacemaking

“Stretching the Imagination: Co-Creating A New World”

Featuring Dr. Vincent Harding

Noted historian, author, lecturer, and long time nonviolence advocate, Dr Harding was an associate of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and now serves as co-chairperson of the Veterans of Hope Project: A Center for the Study of Religion and Democratic Renewal at Iliff School of Theology in Denver Colorado.

Dr. Harding has had a long history of involvement in domestic and international movements for peace and justice. He was the first director of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Center in Atlanta and served as director and chairperson of The Institute of the Black World. He was senior academic consultant to the award-winning PBS television series, Eyes on the Prize. Among his publications are The Other American Revolution and Martin Luther King: The Inconvenient Hero.

And including:

- ⊗ workshops led by nonviolence practitioners
- ⊗ anniversary dinner featuring celebration of the arts with music, poetry and dance
- ⊗ Sunday morning prayers and reflections in the desert and a nonviolence witness at Creech Air Force base, headquarters of the Predator and Reaper “hunter-killer” drones

**Pace e Bene's vision is for transforming lives & changing the world with education, resources, and action for nonviolent change. Pace e Bene's programming offers tools to envision nonviolent alternatives – and to put them into practice.*
